

3rd Annual Information & Network Technology Security Seminar 2003

Your computer systems CAN be compromised... how can you protect them from intrusion?

"Protecting our critical infrastructures in the Information Age raises new challenges for all of us."

Ron Dick,
Director of NIPC, FBI

QUESTIONS?

Phone: 818-241-6009 Ext. 265

Fax: 818-241-2371

Email: security.seminar@pinnacleinc.com

For 2002, reported losses of information and data exceeded $455 million*. 74% of reported intrusions came via the Internet, and 33% of reported intrusions were from inside sources.

Imagine what went unreported.

 FBI Computer Crime Survey

INCREASE YOUR SECURITY AWARENESS AND LEARN HOW TO SECURE YOUR I.T. INFRASTRUCTURE BY ATTENDING THIS EDUCATIONAL SEMINAR

Featured speakers will discuss the legal and security issues relating to Internet Based Technology. First-hand presentations from the FBI, legal, IT security and technical experts will demonstrate how you can protect your investments and vital business data from hackers and intruders.

Learn about the legal ramifications and tremendous costs of recovering stolen Intellectual Property.

Get the answers relating to vital and complex issues of IT Security, and see up-close a tremendous variety of security hardware and software products on display from an array of industry leaders and vendors.

Registration cost:

$95.00 includes breakfast & lunch

Seating is limited.

What:

INFORMATION SECURITY FOR YOUR BUSINESS SEMINAR 2003

When:

Tuesday, November 18, 2003 9:00 am – 1:00 pm

Where:

Junior Achievement Conference Center
6250 Forest Lawn Drive, Los Angeles CA 90068

Register Now:

Please make checks payable to: Pinnacle

Mail to: Pinnacle
730 Fairmont Avenue
Glendale, CA 91203
Att: Security Seminar Administrator