HEADLINE: Avo Amirian's 12th Annual Golf Classic

Raises 83K for Junior Achievement of Southern California

Avo Amirian, CEO of Pinnacle and JASoCal Board Member, held his 12th annual Golf Classic benefitting Junior Achievement of Southern California at Angeles National Golf Course on Monday, October 21, sponsored by Pinnacle.

The Pinnacle team raised $83,000 for JASoCal! This money will directly support 1,600 JA Kids.. Foursomes competed in an 18-hole course for the afternoon and afterwards enjoyed a sit down dinner and an auction. All proceeds from the auction also went to JASoCal. "Junior Achievement is a non-profit organization near and dear to our hearts. Children are our future and I strongly believe through education, we can help young people achieve their potential and gain the tools they need to make good decisions for their futures," says Avo Amirian, CEO of Pinnacle.

Junior Achievement of Southern California is a non-profit organization whose mission is to inspire and prepare young people to succeed in a global economy. Through their three pillars of success: entrepreneurship, financial literacy and work readiness, our programs help prepare young people for the real world by showing them how to recognize the economic relevance of excelling in school.
